

I have subscribed to the Indiana Telephone Privacy List because I don't want solicitations by any company. This includes banks, telephone services, credit card offers, etc. Actually these are the people and institutions that have in the past caused me the most headaches as far as unwanted telephone calls. Please let us keep our privacy... we respect yours!